

NOMINATION FOR AN OCA MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE POSITION

Name of nominee: Edwin Angless
Nominees confirmation of willingness to stand (signature):
Brief bio: Edwin was born and raised in Pinelands and moved to Observatory in 1977 whilst a studying law at the University of Cape Town. After a period of political exile in Zimbabwe, he returned to Observatory in 2003, and has lived in the neighbourhood ever since. Edwin has initiated various projects in Observatory. As past chair of the OBSID Arts, Sports, Culture and Heritage portfolio he was instrumental in bringing the highly successful and popular Open Streets events to Observatory and as an enthusiastic "burner" facilitated the first Streetopia event. He has also been actively involved in promoting street art in Obs including the recent painting of the two subways under the Obs station. Edwin is currently the longest serving board member of the Observatory Improvement District. A lifelong social activist and filmmaker, Edwin would like to see his "Living History of Observatory" project grow into an interactive experience that enables an inclusive neighbourhood and makes Observatory a sharing, caring, safer, smarter, greener suburb.
Motivation for standing: Since being elected on to the OCA Mancomm at the last AGM, Edwin has hugely increased the number of newsletters that go out to the members as well as increasing the readership of the newsletter by a factor of 4. Edwin has also expanded the OCA website to such an extent that it has become a respected site for anyone looking for news and information about Observatory. Edwin is standing to be re-elected to the Communications portfolio so that he can continue his work of reaching out to the whole of his beloved suburb.
