

OBSERVATORY
Civic Association

Annual Award to a Heritage and/or Environmental Consultant of Integrity

2021 Co-Recipient: Ms Deirdre Prins-Solani

Ms Deirdre Prins-Solani is an independent consultant and practitioner specialising in the fields of intangible heritage research, education, and community-based inventorying. She is an accredited expert to the UNESCO 2003 Convention on Intangible Cultural Heritage. In 2021, she provided her expertise to the Observatory Civic Association and the Goringhaicona Khoi Khoin Indigenous Traditional Council in our court challenge over the approvals given to the River Club. She has been unwavering both in her support for our case and for the protection and strengthening of cultural heritage.

The Observatory Civic Association wishes to acknowledge Ms Deirdre Prins- Solani's willingness to put professional evidence ahead of financial and other vested interests and to recognise her as a Consultant of Integrity.

Signed:

Leslie London
Observatory Civic Association
7th December 2021